CONTRADICTORYREPORTS

General Orloff Responsible for the Retreat From Liao Yang, Fired Out of Far East-Japanese Hope of Port Arthur's Early Fall.

The various reports regarding the thur. situation at the front in the far east received today give no indication of any new movements. The most interesting information from St. Petersburg is the statement that Major of the first touch of Manchurian win-General Orloff, upon whom was placed the abandonment of Liao Yang will be detached from the Manchurian army and given another command in Europe in Russia or he may be retired .

EVEN MUKDEN IN THE DARK. Mukden, Sept. 24.-The situation here cannot be definitely stated as each day brings forth conflicting reports, one day it being said that the Russians expect the Japanese to attack and the next that the Russians are assuming the offensive.

According to Chinese reports, received the Japanese are actively fortifying Liao Yang and have completely demolished the railroad bridge across ittilse river, of which the Russians only succeeded in burning the wood work.

TOKIO SEES EARLY FALL. Tokio, Sept. 24 .- It is believed here the Japanese have captured six forts

SPECIAL: By request we will this year conduct a special class in Bookkeeping and Business Practice for adults only. Many business men have expressed a desire to take this work but do not wish to be in classes with younger students.

We will also have a special class in advanced dictation for the benefit of those whose only object is to gain speed in shorthand. Writers of any system are admitted to this class. Night school will be held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights from seven to nine. Many of the shrewdest and most successful business men of Phoenix have taken our night courses and this year promises the largest enrollment yet.
